Funding in the Humanities New Faculty Orientation

Vivian May, vmmay@syr.edu
Director, Humanities Center | Director, Central New York Humanities Corridor | Professor, Women’s & Gender Studies

Romita Ray, rray@syr.edu
Associate Professor of Art History

Sarah Workman, scworkman@syr.edu
Assistant Director, Proposal Development (Humanities)

SEPTEMBER 30, 2020
Introductions & Initial Questions

- What questions do you have before we get started?
- What brought you to this session?
Funding & Fellowships in the Humanities (broadly defined)

- Why should I apply?
- What kinds of support does SU offer?
- Are there options for international faculty?
- What kinds of opportunities exist for internal and external funding / fellowships?
Why Apply for Research Funding/Fellowships?

- Enhances research & scholarship
- Broadens your networks, builds connections
- Contributes to your tenure & promotion portfolio
- Helps define ideas for your books & articles
- Provides opportunities for mentoring and collaboration
- Successful awards pave the way for other opportunities
How can SU support you?

- Proposal Consultation: Brainstorming/writing/editing at any point in the proposal development process
- Identifying possible funding/award/fellowship sources
- Connecting you with collaborators and other researchers
- Connecting you with institutional support from Corporate and Foundation Relations; Office of Sponsored Programs; SU Libraries
- Connecting you with SU’s membership in the National Center for Faculty Diversity and Development
- Recognizing your work
- Introducing you to the Research Administrator network
What are some SU funding/fellowship opportunities?

- Collaboration for Unprecedented Success and Excellence (CUSE) Grant Program (on pause this year)
- Lender Center for Social Justice Faculty Fellowship
- Special Collections Research Center Faculty Fellows (Summers)
- Community Engagement Faculty Fellows (start Summer 2021: contact Brice Nordquist, Dean’s Professor of Community Engagement, A&S)
- Syracuse Office of Undergraduate Research and Creative Engagement (The SOURCE) (undergraduate research assistants)
- Moynihan Institute of Global Affairs (Maxwell): Various Regional Centers
- Last but not least, the Humanities Center: Faculty Fellowships (A&S + Maxwell), CNY Humanities Corridor funding, and more ...
Syracuse University Humanities Center (SUHC)

Vivian May, Director | PI, CNY Humanities Corridor | Professor, Women’s & Gender Studies

SUHC facilitates partnerships and supports diverse research activities across SU and throughout the region. Our initiatives include:

• Fellowships for faculty and graduate students;

• Funding for humanities collaborations via the CNY Humanities Corridor, an 11-institution regional consortium housed at the Center;

• Syracuse Symposium, our thematic annual public events series;

• Programming partnerships / co-sponsorship funding;

• Annual Books in the Humanities recognition, open to all SU authors.

301 Tolley Humanities Building | 315.443.7192 | humcenter@syr.edu | http://humcenter.syr.edu
How can you fund your research?

- SU Subscription Resources
- Office of Research Awareness Sessions
- Hall Center for the Humanities (KU) Funding Resources Guides
- Foundation Directory Online (Free access through SU Libraries)
- Your colleagues!
- Experts and Professional Organizations in Your Field
Q & A

Please let us know your questions via chat!
Thank you!

Vivian May, vmmay@syr.edu
Director, Humanities Center
PI, CNY Humanities Corridor
Professor, Women’s & Gender Studies

Romita Ray, rray@syr.edu
Associate Professor of Art History

Sarah Workman, srworkma@syr.edu
Assistant Director, Proposal Development (Humanities)